

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions: using the public airways in a blatant partisan political manner is inappropriate and probably illegal. Media consolidation is not in the public interest in this case and illustrates why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. The license renewal process needs to be re-examined and reformed.